

AEGS meeting, Wednesday February 8, 17

Present: John Brick, Catherine Simmerer, Sarah Holland, Jackie Derks, Alex Frissell, Sareene Proodian, Matthew Burchanoski, Katie Sterr, Kathryn Hendrickson, Kenny Guay, Danielle Clapham.

Shakespeare 5K Fundraiser: With the help of Silver Circle Sports Events, we will have a Shakespeare themed 5k run/walk. Date is set for Sunday, April 23rd and will be at Juneau Park. Deal is the SCSE will cover the costs (roughly $3000 with other expenses). AEGS will get 35% of profit. AEGS will get 65% of sponsorship money. Min. is $250, though we may shoot for $300. Site goes live on Monday!

Sponsorship ideas:

Boswell – Sareene will ask her contact

MKE Rep – Alex will ask his contact

Sobelman's

Oscar's

FAME alumni

Photoshoot fundraiser: Hoping more people sign up. Great and cheap opportunity! Sareene will email Wendy and Rebecca asking them to email the department and Writing Center.

Social events: Splash Bar and movie night of Hail, Caesar! Sareene is going to plan and will send out invites. More structured movie night plan for the prospective students to pretend we're a social department.

Insurance debacle: No response from History, Theology, or Philosophy departments about getting together for action. Consensus is that AEGS should still make a statement. Either a letter published in Tribune or sent to Dean Woods and Pres. Lovell, signed as AEGS and individuals (perhaps faculty). Letter will be drafted soon.

GSO meeting 4-5 on Thursday, February 16, location to be determined. Because Jack is an "ignorant ponce," it's decided that AEGS members (board and non-board) should go to air our grievances.

Sareene is creating a GoogleDoc that will have a Call to Action letter and other letters written by Danielle Clapham regarding insurance so that we have an understanding and the language needed to speak on the issue.
